PROCLAMATION
National Public Works Week
May 15 – 21, 2016
“Public Works Always There”

WHEREAS, National Public Works Week recognizes the men and women who provide and maintain the infrastructure and services collectively known as public works, which are an integral part of the health, safety, and comfort in the everyday lives of Farmington Hills residents; and

WHEREAS, the support of an understanding and informed citizenry is vital to the efficient operation of public works systems and programs such as water supply, sanitary sewers, roadways, public buildings and properties, signage, traffic control, and solid waste collection and recycling; and

WHEREAS, the health, safety, and comfort of this community greatly depends on the effectiveness of public works programs and the daily service of the competent, dedicated, hard working professionals of the Public Services Department; and

WHEREAS, National Public Works Week was instituted as a public education campaign by the American Public Works Association in 1960 and is designed to call attention to the importance of public works in the daily lives of present and future generations.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that I, Ken Massey, Mayor of the City of Farmington Hills, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim May 15 – 21, 2016 as National Public Works Week in the City of Farmington Hills and call upon all citizens to recognize and acknowledge the vital services provided daily by the City’s public works professionals to maintain the high quality of life in Farmington Hills.

Kenneth D. Massey, PhD, Mayor
