Whereas, public works services provided in our community are an integral part of our citizens' everyday lives; and

Whereas, the support of an understanding and informed citizenry is vital to the efficient operation of public works systems and programs such as water, sewer, streets and highways, public buildings, solid waste collection, parks and canal maintenance; and

Whereas, the health, safety, and comfort of this community greatly depends on these facilities and services; and

Whereas, the quality and effectiveness of these facilities, as well as their planning, design, and construction, is vitally dependent upon the efforts and skill of public works officials; and

Whereas, the efficiency of the qualified and dedicated personnel, who staff public works departments, is materially influenced by the people's attitude and understanding of the importance of the work they perform; and

Whereas, this year's theme is Always There speaks to the essential nature of public works services in support of everyday quality of life.

Now, Therefore, I, Randall P. Henderson, Jr., Mayor of the City of Fort Myers, do hereby proclaim May 15, 2016, through May 21, 2016, as in the City of Fort Myers and call upon all citizens and civic organizations to acquaint themselves with the issues involved in providing our public works; and to recognize the contributions which public works officials make every day to our health, safety, comfort, and quality of life.

In Witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the City of Fort Myers, Florida on this 2nd day of May, in the Year of our Lord Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Randall P. Henderson, Jr.
Mayor
