Proclamation of the City Council
City of San Diego

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

Presented by Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer and Council President Sherri S. Lightner

WHEREAS, public works infrastructure, facilities and services are of vital importance to sustainable communities and to the health, safety and well-being of the people of San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the City is committed to developing smart growth strategies and infrastructure that is innovative and environmentally friendly, provides for continued economic success, and improves the quality of life for all communities throughout San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the City takes great pride in maintaining its award-winning infrastructure, facilities and environmental assets to promote tourism and business investments in San Diego and sustaining it as a world-class city for all; and

WHEREAS, such facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of its public works professionals, engineers, managers and employees who work together to design, build, operate and maintain transportation, water and sewer systems, and public buildings and structures that are essential to the successful operation and sustainable growth of America's Finest City; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego joins the American Public Works Association and government agencies across America in acknowledging public works professionals and extends its appreciation for their substantial contributions to our quality of life; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT PROCLAIMED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of San Diego, that the Mayor and this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, do hereby declare the week of May 15 - May 21, 2016 to be "NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS WEEK" in the City of San Diego.
