OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

CITY OF TEMPLE

PROCLAMATION~

WHEREAS, the public works services provided in our community are an integral part of our citizens’ everyday lives - the health, safety and comfort of this community greatly depends on these facilities and services;

WHEREAS, without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, engineers and administrators who are responsible for building, operating and maintaining the public works systems and programs such as water, sewers, streets and highways, public buildings and solid waste collection, these services could not be provided;

WHEREAS, the support of an understanding and informed community is vital to the efficient operation of public works programs and the efficiency of the qualified and dedicated staff is materially influenced by the people; and

WHEREAS, this year’s theme is “Public Works Always There” which showcases the pervasiveness of public works and how communities depend on public works, and the men and women of the profession are always there and always ready.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DANIEL A. DUNN, Mayor of the City of Temple, Texas, do hereby proclaim the Week of May 15-21, 2016, as in the City of Temple, Texas, and I urge all citizens to acquaint yourselves with the issues involved in providing our public works and to recognize the valuable contributions these public works professionals make every day to our health, safety, comfort and quality of life.

"PUBLIC WORKS WEEK"

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I witness my hand and the Seal of the City of Temple, Texas, this the 19th day of May, 2016.

DANIEL A. DUNN, Mayor

ATTEST:

LACY BORGESEN
City Secretary
